Mr. Andrew Berding
Assistant Director, Policy and Programs
United States Information Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Berding:

Mr. Dulles has asked me to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of 9 August enclosing the report by Mr. Lloyd Free. The Director was familiar with the report as Mr. Free himself had previously sent us a copy. We are very glad, however, to have an additional copy so that other members of the Agency may study it.

Your thoughtfulness in sending this is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Allen:

As you requested at the OCB meeting Wednesday, I enclose herewith Mr. Lloyd Free's report, "The Dynamics of Influence in Today's Japan," for your personal use. This was referred to by Bobby Cutler in connection with the Doctrinal Program.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "A. Berding".

Andrew Berding
Assistant Director
Policy and Programs
